Item 4. Change in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

(a) Effective April 28, 2000 the Company retained PricewaterhouseCoopers ("PWC") to act as the Company's independent certified public accountant. In this regard PWC replaced Ernst & Young LLP ("E&Y") which audited the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended April 30, 1999 and 1998. The reports of E&Y for these fiscal years did not contain an adverse opinion, or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and subsequent interim periods, there were no disagreements with E&Y on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedures, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of E&Y would have caused it to make reference to such disagreements in its reports.

(b) The Company has authorized E&Y to discuss any matter relating to the Company and its operations with PWC.

(c) The change in the Company's auditors was recommended and approved by the board of directors of the Company. The Company does not have an audit committee.

(d) During the two most recent fiscal years and subsequent interim periods, the Company did not consult PWC regarding the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, or any matter that was the subject of a disagreement or a reportable event.

(e) PWC has reviewed the disclosures contained in this 8-K report. The Company has advised PWC that it has the opportunity to furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission concerning any new information, clarifying the Company's disclosures herein, or stating any reason why PWC does not agree with any statements made by the Company in this report. PWC has advised the Company that nothing has come to its attention which would cause it to believe that any such letter was necessary.

(b) Not Applicable

(c) Exhibits

16.1 Letter from former auditors confirming information in Item 4 (a)
