PROXY STATEMENT

The accompanying proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of the Company for voting at the Special Meeting of Shareholders to be held on _____, 2001, and at any and all adjournments of such meeting. If the proxy is executed and returned, it will be voted at the meeting in accordance with any instructions, and if no specification is made, the proxy will be voted for the proposals set forth in the accompanying Notice of the Special Meeting of Shareholders. Shareholders who execute proxies may revoke them at any time before they are voted, either by writing to the Company at the address set forth on page one or in person at the time of the meeting. Additionally, any later dated proxy will revoke a previous proxy from the same shareholder. This proxy statement was mailed to shareholders of record on or about _____, 2001.

Only the holders of the Company's common stock are entitled to vote at the meeting. Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote and votes may be cast either in person or by proxy. A quorum consisting of one-third of the shares entitled to vote is required for the meeting. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock is required to approve the reverse stock split of the Company's common stock. The approval of the holders of a majority of shares present at the meeting, in person or by proxy, is required to approve any other proposal to come before the meeting. As of October 30, 2001 the Company had 9,231,012 outstanding shares of common stock.

Shares of the Company's common stock represented by properly executed proxies that reflect abstentions or "broker non-votes" will be counted as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum at the special meeting. "Broker non-votes" represent shares held by brokerage firms in "street-name" with respect to which the broker has not received instructions from the customer or otherwise does not have discretionary voting authority. Some brokerage firms may not have discretionary authority to vote these "street-name" shares with respect to the proposal to reverse split the Company's common stock. Because approval of the reverse stock split requires the approval of a majority of the Company's outstanding shares, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes against the approval of the matters to be voted upon at the meeting.

Century Capital Management Ltd., which owns 86.7% of the Company's common stock, intends to vote its shares in favor of the proposal specified in the Notice of the Special Meeting of Shareholders.

PROPOSED REVERSE STOCK SPLIT

In connection with the Company's debt settlement and seeking out business opportunity candidates with the intent to acquire or merge with one or more business ventures, the Company believes it would be beneficial to reduce the number of the Company's outstanding shares. Accordingly, the Company's board of directors has adopted a proposal, subject to shareholder approval, to reverse split the shares of the Company's issued and outstanding common stock such that each nine outstanding shares of the Company's common stock will be automatically converted into one share of common stock. Notwithstanding the above, no fractional shares will be issued. Any shareholder who owns less than nine shares, and who would therefore otherwise receive less than one share of the Company's common stock, will be entitled to receive $0.0001 for each share of the Company's common stock owned by the shareholder immediately prior to the effective date of the reverse split, provided the shareholder sends a written request for payment to the Company. Any fractional share which would otherwise be issued to a shareholder owning nine or more shares of common stock will be rounded down to the nearest whole share. If the reverse stock split is approved, the Company will continue to be registered under Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and will continue to file 10-KSB, 10-QSB, and 8-K reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

If the reverse split is approved by the Company's shareholders, the Company will have 1,025,668 outstanding shares of common stock.

AVAILABILITY OF FILINGS MADE WITH SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

The Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB and its latest quarterly report on Form 10-QSB will be sent to any shareholder of the Company upon request. Requests for a copy of these reports should be addressed to the Secretary of the Company at the address provided on the first page of this proxy statement.

Any shareholder proposal which may properly be included in the proxy solicitation material for the annual meeting of shareholders to be held after the Company's fiscal year ending April 30, 2002 must be received by the Secretary of the Company not later than September 30, 2002.
