Except as and to the extent disclosed in the Filed Seller SEC Documents, neither Company has any liabilities or obligations of any nature, whether or not accrued, absolute, contingent, unliquidated or otherwise, whether due or to become due and whether or not required to be disclosed, reserved against or otherwise provided for which is required by GAAP to be set forth on a consolidated balance sheet of Seller and its consolidated Subsidiaries or in the notes thereto, other than liabilities or obligations (i) in the amounts reflected on or reserved against in Seller's consolidated balance sheet as of April 30, 2011 including in Seller's financial statements or (ii) that are incurred in the ordinary course of business since April 30, 2011.

SECTION 2.09. Litigation. There is no pending, or to Seller's Knowledge, overtly threatened in writing action, claim, suit, proceeding or investigation against either Company, or to which any property, assets or rights of either Company is subject, nor is either Company subject to any Order that remains outstanding or unsatisfied, in each case, except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(a) Each Company has all permits, licenses, franchises, authorizations, Orders and approvals of, and have made all filings, applications and registrations with, all Governmental Entities that are required in order to permit it to own, lease or license their properties, assets and rights, and to carry on their business as presently conducted, except where the failure to have such permits, licenses, franchises, authorizations, Orders and approvals or the failure to make such filings, applications and registrations would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect. All such permits, licenses, certificates of authority, Orders and approvals are in full force and effect and, to Seller's Knowledge, no suspension or cancellation of any of them is overtly threatened in writing, and all such filings, applications and registrations are current, except where such absence, suspension or cancellation would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Each Company is in compliance with all applicable Laws, except where the failure to so comply would not result in a Company Material Adverse Effect. This Section 2.10(b) does not relate to matters with respect to the compliance of the financial statements with the Securities Act, the Exchange Act or SOX (which are the subject of Section 2.06), Taxes (which are the subject of Section 2.11), Company Benefit Plans (which are the subject of Section 2.12) and environmental matters (which are the subject of Section 2.14).

Notwithstanding the above, Seller agrees to fully indemnify Purchaser in any amount for any Tax payments Purchaser ultimately has to make with respect to any time period prior to the date hereof as a result of findings by a Governmental Entity that Seller has violated applicable Law.

Upon the written request of the Purchaser, in its sole and exclusive discretion, Seller and Purchaser or, as applicable, any designated Purchaser shall join in making elections under Code Section 338(h)(10) (and any corresponding election under state, local, or foreign law) (a "Section 338(h) Election") with respect to Purchaser's (or any designated Purchaser's) purchase of the Securities pursuant to this Agreement.

In the event that Seller incurs any tax obligations as a result of the Section 338(h) Election which are in excess of amounts due had the transactions set forth herein been taxed as a stock sale, Purchaser hereby agrees to reimburse to Seller such excess amount and further agrees that the amount that Purchaser shall be required to reimburse Seller under this paragraph shall (1) be grossed up to assure that Seller does not incur any Tax cost as a result of the Section 338(h) Election and the reimbursement payments under this paragraph and (2) take into account the highest marginal income tax rate applicable to payments of this type at the applicable times as applies to Seller. Any reimbursement shall be paid to Seller not less than seven (7) days prior to the time Seller is required to pay such amounts with a tax return or estimated payment.

SECTION 2.12. Labor and Employee Benefit Matters.

(b) Section 2.12(b) of the Company Disclosure Letter sets forth a list as of the date of this Agreement of each material “employee benefit plan” (within the meaning of Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”)) sponsored, maintained, or contributed to by the Companies in which present or former employees of the Companies (the “Company Employees”) participate or for which the Companies have any material liability (collectively, the “Benefit Plans”). Except as set forth in Section 2.12(b) of the Company Disclosure Letter, no Benefit Plan is a “defined benefit plan,” “multiple employer welfare arrangement,” “multiple employer plan,” or “multiemployer plan,” as such terms are defined in ERISA or the Code.

(c) Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect, the Benefit Plans are in compliance with all applicable requirements of ERISA, the Code, and other applicable Laws and have been administered in accordance with their terms and such Laws.

(d) There are no pending or, to the Knowledge of the Seller, threatened, claims with respect to any Benefit Plans, other than ordinary and usual claims for benefits by participants and beneficiaries, that would, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

Neither Company is a lessor, sublessor or grantor under any lease, sublease or other instrument granting to any other Person any right to the possession, lease, occupancy or enjoyment of any Leased Real Property. To Seller’s Knowledge, each Company has valid leasehold interest in all of the Leased Real Property, subject to no Liens other than Permitted Liens. Each Company is in compliance with the terms of all leases relating to the Leased Real Property to which it is a party, except such compliance which has not had or would not reasonable be expect to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect. (b) Neither Company has received a notice in writing of violation or notification in writing of liability or potential liability arising out of any Environmental Law, and there is no Litigation or claim pending or, to Seller's Knowledge, overtly threatened in writing under any Environmental Law, except in each case, with respect to any violation or liability that would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 2.15. Contracts. Each written contract to which a Company is a party or by which it is bound, which is material to the business of such Company (each a "Material Contract"), is valid and binding, except to the extent that the invalidity or non-binding nature of any Material Contract would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect, and (ii) neither Company is in default in the performance of its respective obligations under any such Material Contract, except for defaults which would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 2.16. Intellectual Property.

(a) Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect, the Companies own, or possess sufficient and legally enforceable licenses or other rights to use, any and all Intellectual Property necessary for the conduct of the businesses and operations of the Companies as currently conducted.

(b) To Seller's Knowledge, the conduct of the business of each Company does not infringe, conflict with or otherwise violate any Intellectual Property of any Person, and neither Company has received written notice or has knowledge of any such infringement, conflict or other violation, except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.
